

Free ICT Courses

Why do employees need good ICT skills?

- 92% of jobs now require at least one digital skill
- Upskilling digital competencies helps reduce staff turnover
- Strong ICT capabilities streamline operations, generate cost savings, and improve decision-making speed
- A digitally proficient workforce boosts productivity, morale, and retention while improving earning potential.

Digital competence is no longer optional - it's business imperative. Strong ICT skills empower organisations to drive efficiency, accelerate growth, and remain competitive in today's evolving marketplace.
